DETAILED ACTION

1. This in response to applicant's argument filed 7/28/04 in which claims 1-5,7-11 are pending.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. After a further search and thorough examination of the present application and in view of the applicant arguments, claims 1-5,7-11 are found to be in condition for allowance.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art Kim (5,805,694) teaches a redialing method for telephone terminal equipment includes the steps of: dialing a telephone number in response to user input of numeric keys representative of the telephone number and storing respective digits of the telephone number; displaying the telephone number in response to a user input of a redial key (abstract).

On the other hand, the present application teaches a controller adapted to retrieve a plurality of redial phone numbers from the first and second memory, the phone numbers being related to the registered phone numbers for sequential dialing, until a connection is made. These limitations, in conjunction with all limitations of the independent claims, have not disclosed, taught or made obvious over the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably
